

Junior Achievement programs underway

SUBMITTED PHOTO

Amber Metzler for Geneva School Board

Amber Metzler is running for the Geneva School Board. I would like to take this opportunity to explain why she is an excellent choice.

Amber has been attending Geneva School Board meetings for 10 years now, ever since her daughter started school in the district. She has rarely missed a meeting in those 10 years. No other citizen can make this claim. It shows an extraordinary desire to be informed of the issues facing the school district. We need this type of involvement.

When her daughter was in elementary school, Amber served on the Austinburg PTO for five years. This included two years as secretary, two years as treasurer, and chairing the Veteran's Day programs, COSI, and the fall fundraisers. Amber currently works at the Geneva Public Library and has for that past six years. Her work at the library brings her in touch with students and parents from the school district on a daily basis.

Amber has lived in Geneva for the past 17 years. She graduated from Kent State University in 1993 with a BA degree in Rhetoric and Communication. Her husband John was born and raised in Geneva, graduating from GHS in 1990. He is a Gulf War Navy veteran. Her daughter is an accomplished student at Geneva High, having won awards in Science Fair and through Rotary, and has participated in numerous activities including Philanthropy Club, Interact, Student Council, and Scholastic Bowl.

Since my family moved to the Geneva area eight years ago, we have gotten to know the Metzlers well. I know that Amber will bring a passion and commitment to the Geneva Schools that will be unmatched. She will put the time and work in to understand and help address the complex issues facing our school district. She will listen to the concerns of the citizens of our district before making decisions because she believes it is important to know all sides of an issue. She will be an asset to the School Board, the Schools, and the Community.

This is why I will be voting for Amber Metzler for the Geneva School Board come Nov. 5. I hope you will, too.
